MYSTERY IN REAL ESTATE MAN'S DEATH IN CITY PARK

Blakesley Barnes, Bruised and Cut, Drops in Front of City Hall.

FOUND HURT IN STREET.

Brought Home by Policeman Wife Thought Auto Had Hit Him.

Blakesley Barnes, fifty-three years old, a real estate broker and expert appraiser, died in the City Hall Park today from injuries supposed to have been sustained the night before, when he was found near his home, at Seventy-seventh street and West End avenue. When he was brought to his residence, at No. 25 West End avenue, his condition alarmed his wife, Mrs. Aida Barnes, who sent for Dr. Crump, the family physician, of No. 29 West End avenue. Several stitches were required to close the wounds, which were chiefly on the face.

This morning, according to Mrs. Barnes, who spoke with a reporter for the Evening World at the Elizabeth street station, whence her husband's body was taken, Mr. Barnes rose from bed and insisted on going downtown to his office at No. 62 Liberty street. Mrs. Barnes said:

Insisted on Leaving Home. "I tried to persuade Mr. Barnes not to leave the house but he insisted that he had business of an important nature to attend to and that the matter could not be delayed.

"I was alarmed lest the cold get into the cuts and Mr. Barnes would be made seriously sick. I saw to it that the bandages were properly adjusted and let him go. He appeared to be all right, otherwise, I do not know what he did after leaving home, whether he went to his office or not."

Mrs. Barnes was of the impression that her husband had been hit by an automobile at Seventy-seventh street and West End avenue, but could get no story from her husband. It developed later today that Patrolman Landerman, of the West Sixty-eighth street police station, saw Mr. Barnes fall heavily last night as he was approaching his home, and learning who he was, took him to the door step. There he left him.

Evidently Mr. Barnes did not remember this occurrence for he made no kind of explanation to his wife and seemingly allowed the impression to prevail that he had been hit by an automobile.

Mr. Barnes had two sons and a daughter, the latter named Aida after Mrs. Barnes. The eldest son, Blakesley Barnes Jr., is a mining engineer working for a Colorado mining company.

Dead on Bench. Policeman Martin Cahill, of the Liberty street station, found Mr. Barnes reeling helplessly about City Hall Park this afternoon.

The policeman arrested him and sat him down on a bench by the fountain awaiting the arrival of a patrol wagon. The broker, who seemed to be dazed, sat there quietly and gave the policeman his name and address. Suddenly he slipped off the bench to the ground; the policeman raised him and found that he was dead. His head was banded, hiding a deep wound in the forehead. Both eyes were blackened and his nose was broken.

The body was placed on a patrol wagon and hurried to the Elizabeth street station, where an examination of the dead man's pockets, containing letters and cards, fully established his identity. Five dollars in bills were found in a wallet, but there was no watch or jewelry on the body.

Mr. Barnes was a well known business man in the downtown district and had served on the Dr. Kennedy jury, being one of the jurors who stood out for conviction.

DOCTOR DIES ON HURRY CALL. HORNELL, N. Y., Jan. 2.—Dr. J. M. Braisted, seventy years old, dropped dead of heart disease last evening at the home of William King, where he had been hastily summoned to attend James Kurnery, who had broken through the ice on the Canastota river.

SAVED MOTHER AND CHILD FROM DEATH BY FAST TRAIN

But Heroic Railroad Man Who Jumped in Front of Boston Express and Threw Both from Tracks Was Struck Himself and Will Probably Die.

MERIDEN, Conn., Jan. 2.—Risking his own life to save those of Mrs. Philip Gauthier and her child, who were on the tracks, Michael Donlon ran in front of the New York-Boston express, over the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, at the station here this afternoon, and rescued both, being himself probably fatally hurt. Mrs. Gauthier and her child escaped practically unhurt.

DREAMS BRING THE FEAR THAT HIS WIFE WAS BURIED ALIVE

Prompted by Visions of Members of the Family, a Newark Man Obtains a Permit to Have Woman's Body Exhumed.

Members of the family having dreamed that they had seen his dead wife and apparently choking from a white veil buried with her, Gerardo Tramitola, of No. 61 Bay avenue, Newark, went to the City Hall in that city today and obtained a permit to disinter the body.

"I fear my wife may have been buried alive," said Tramitola to City Clerk Connelly. "My daughter and other relatives have dreamed that they met her—that she was happy, all but one thing—that a veil buried with her was white instead of black and that it was clinging to her."

The permit was granted and Tramitola hurried away to find a grave digger to disinter the body, which is buried in the Cemetery of the Holy Sepulchre. He found that the formality of notifying the cemetery superintendent would necessarily delay the opening of the grave until Monday.

Mrs. Tramitola died suddenly on Nov. 27 last from a stroke of paralysis.

NEW YEAR'S EVE REVELRY STAIN ON CITY, SAYS RABBI

Dr. Silverman Sees in Extravagance of Twentieth Century Orgies a Decadence Such as That Which Led to the Downfall of Roman Empire.

In his sermon at the Temple Emanuel today Rabbi Joseph Silverman attacked the Christmas New Year as it is celebrated in New York City. The attack came after his answer to the text of his sermon, "What is religion?" Dr. Silverman said it was holiness.

"On the basis of this holiness," he said, "religion is to affect life and make it a system of plain living and high thinking in contrast with the present system of high living and low thinking. To particularize, I refer to the Bacchanalian feasts and orgies to which at least one million people of this city surrendered themselves on New Year's night."

"That night of sensual revelry, of licentious noise and dissipation is a strain upon our metropolitan life. There is nothing elevating or inspiring in these orgies of men and women and boys and girls jostling and teeming, screaming and making night hideous with their unearthly noises. On the contrary, it is degrading and emphasizes the baser, rather than the higher, quality of human nature."

"The extravagances of the revelers, who too often put a strain upon their purses in order to run with the tide and join the so-called fashionable New Year's carnival.

"The entire object of that night of dissipation and luxurious living, immediate drinking and boisterous hilarity—to say nothing of immodest conduct—savours of the ancient heathen Saturnalia and is a pagan orgy with Twentieth Century settings."

"For the past twenty years I have noticed the yearly increase of noise, extravagance and sensuality on New Year's night. Where will it end? Perhaps as it did in Rome, in the complete enslavement of citizens and the downfall of the Nation."

RAY THOMPSON WINS RACE AT SAVANNAH

Ladies' Day Brings Out Great Crowd at the Southern Track.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Jan. 2.—To-day was rather cool but it being the first ladies' day of the meeting a great number of the fair sex with their escorts attended. Saturday is Savannah's busiest day from the business men's standpoint, but at that the crowd was far in excess of the general average, with the daily arrival of horses and jockeys prospects take on a brighter hue day by day.

The feature of the day was the third race, bringing together the best handi-capped of the meeting, having as starters Salvaterra, Resk, Nuttman, Flower, Duell, Auspicious and the Creek Bush horse Lucullus, and a cracking good contest resulted. David Dunlop, Jockey McCabe and the horses Baby White and Youthful arrived last evening.
